NEW VIEWS!

THE NEWS OF MAUI

A Chinaman's Rice Junk Makes a Trip.

AUGUST "LITERARY" AT MAKAWAO

Japanese Minister Robbed of His Money and Clothing.

MAUI, Aug. 31.—This week T. Awana, Chinese merchant of Makawao, successfully made a trip from Maliko to Keanae and back again, bringing a cargo of rice in his Chinese junk or sam-pan. The crew consisted of ten sailors—six Chinese and four Hawaiians. The trip over was a very rough one, the six Chinese being sick from the motion of the waves not to mention the effort of rowing in a choppy sea. As the wind was contrary, the sampan had to be rowed over, eight oarsmen working at one time. They sailed back again in three hours with the assistance of one of their two square sails. Five tons of rice was the cargo brought from Keanae. The start was made on the 28th and the return during the 30th. Awana built the junk because the Claudine refused to call in to Keanae to take freight. Last evening, the 30th, a large number of Makawao people attended the August "literary" which was given in the parlors of the Paia Foreign church. Following is the evening's program which was brief but well received:

Vocal Solo.....Miss Nape
Vocal Solo.....Miss Ada Whitney
Reading.....Mrs. W. E. Beckwith
Vocal Solo.....Mr. Newcomb
Farce—"Going to Morrow"

In the little play the characters were assumed by Miss Mary E. Fleming, Mr. W. O. Alken and Sorren Hannestad. On Thursday evening, the 29th, a clambake on the beach of Maliko gulch was much enjoyed by fourteen Makawao young people.

At 6 p. m. they had their clam-bake and feast, after which till 10 p. m., they sat around a huge fire, sang songs and enjoyed the witchery of the firelight and the moonlight reflected on the ocean.

On Wednesday night, the 28th, the residence of Rev. Mr. Sugli, the Japanese minister of Paia, was robbed of $25 in money and sundry articles of clothing, viz.: two "Prince Albert" coats, one sack coat, one vest and two pairs of trousers. The two "Prince Alberts" were found later on the Paia plantation railroad crossing. Deputy Sheriff S. E. Kalama has the matter in hand and will probably soon have sufficient evidence to arrest the offenders.

During the past ten days there has been much excitement in the Chinese mercantile circles of Lahaina, Makawao and Hana created by the arrest of ten or twelve of their number for the illicit sale of spirituous liquors.

Yesterday, the 30th, Young Nap and Pak Sou, Kula storekeepers, were each fined $150 and costs in the Waluku Police Court. Some of the others have been acquitted and some have had their cases continued. The Chinese merchants feel great indignation against the police for the manner in which the evidence against them was obtained. Several years ago Marshal Brown sent an American detective from Honolulu to Maui and many arrests were made after his circuit of the island. So the Chinese were on the watch against strange Americans but in kamalas they placed more trust. Thus it was that John Ferreira, a young Portuguese of Waluku, without much difficulty gathered the evidence upon the strength of which the warrants of arrest were issued. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hatch of Honolulu are enjoying the cool air of Kula. Mr. Newcomb and sister of Honolulu are at Puuomalei, Makawao. High Sheriff Brown is expected on Maui by every steamer.

The Fate of the Belgian Hares.

Kaupo, Maui, Aug. 30, 1901.

Editor Advertiser: The writers in your paper on the Belgian hare have failed to take into account what the dear little mongoose is going to do towards the extermination of the rising generations of hares. It is very safe to say that a pair of hare turned loose in Kaupo district would never get beyond the original couple, and they would eventually die of old age if they met with no accidents.

There are several cats raising kittens all the time, but there are never any new ones seen. All that are here have been here ever since the mongoose came or have been raised at the houses until grown.

Yours truly,
I. S. GARNETT.

Chinese Know No Sultan.

VICTORIA, B. C., August 14.—The steamer Queen Adelaide brings news that the members of the Turkish mission to China have left Shanghai to return home by way of Vladivostok and the Trans-Siberian Railway, thus ending a fiasco.

"The Sultan of Turkey was persuaded by the German Emperor," says the North China Daily News, "to despatch the mission to pacify the Mohammedans in the Northwest Provinces of China in the event of their causing the authorities trouble." There were serious rumors that a Mohammedan rising was contemplated and it was believed that the influence of the Sultan of Turkey, as the head of the Mohammedan religion, could be most usefully employed in pacifying the Mohammedan subjects of the Emperor of China. But the Mohammedans of China had never heard of the Sultan of Turkey, and their whole idea of Mohammedanism is that it is a religion which prohibits the eating of pork.

"When the Envoy Pasha arrived at Shanghai he found that in the first place, there were no Mohammedans handy to be pacified, and, in the second place, that the name of the Sultan of Turkey was not a name to conjure with in China. To reach the Mohammedans who were giving trouble the Pasha found he would have to go to Kansu, no easy task just at present. In fact, if he really wanted to reach the Kansu Mohammedans he must go from India through Cashmere, not from the east coast of China; and if he got to Kansu there was no probability that his representation that he came from the Sultan of Turkey would have any effect whatever.

"In illustration of this, an incident that occurred here the other day may be mentioned. In company with General Creagh, the Envoy inspected one of the Mohammedan British regiments here. He spoke to one of the native officers, a very intelligent man, saying: 'I come from the head of your religion, the Sultan of Turkey.'

"Your Excellency," replied the officer, "the only head that I know is the King of England." In fact, the Envoy found himself in an entirely false position. He did not even know when he left home that there was any European society in Shanghai. He thought he was coming to an entirely savage country. His mission, as far as it regards its avowed object, has been a complete fiasco."

RECEPTION TO VISITING TEXANS

A Pleasant Social Event at the Rice's on Kauai.

LIHUE, Kauai, Aug. 31.—Last Tuesday evening, August 27, a reception was given by Mrs. W. H. Rice Sr., to the Rev. and Mrs. Hyde, of Texas, who are visiting Mother Rice, an aunt of the Rev. Mr. Hyde.

At 8 o'clock the guests commenced to arrive, and very soon the three spacious reception rooms which were artistically decorated with red, yellow and white, respectively, were well filled, the lanai and verandas being a favorite resort of the young people. During the evening vocal and instrumental solos were rendered by Miss Rice, Mrs. Alexander, Mr. Alexander and Mr. De Laacey, and at intervals a number of Hawaiian girls, occupying one end of the veranda, made sweet music on their stringed instruments. At 10 o'clock, in a pavilion of flags erected in the grounds, spread with mats and illuminated by Chinese lanterns, a dainty collation was served. The costumes of the ladies were especially charming, rivaled only by the artistic decorations. One of the most pleasing features which characterized the evening was the absence of the usual reception's formality, due, of course, to the easy grace and cordiality of the hosts.
